

Charities: human traffickers lure UK's homeless into modern slavery – Answer key

| | | |
|--|---|---|
| increasing (adj.) = growing refuges = shelters deceived, cheated = tricked especially = particularly trying = attempting | because = as look for, search for = seek expelled from a country = deported hints, evidence = indicators luxurious = lavish | imprisoned = jailed real = true probable = likely increasing (adv.) = on the rise considered = regarded |
|--|---|---|

| | |
|---|--|
| a) FALSE. They offered a home, not money. b) TRUE c) TRUE d) FALSE. 4,100 people was the minimum every night. e) TRUE | f) TRUE g) TRUE h) FALSE. We do not know because there are no official figures. i) FALSE. They estimate different figures. j) TRUE |
|---|--|

- a) Jones told the Thomson Reuters Foundation by email.
How did Jones tell the Thomson Reuters Foundation?
- b) Homeless migrants are especially vulnerable to enslavement as they are less likely to seek shelter.
Why are homeless migrants especially vulnerable to enslavement?
- c) We have started to see an increase in people on the streets.
What have they started to see?
- d) Nine members of a British traveler family were jailed for a total of about 80 years.
How long for were nine members of a British traveler family jailed? /
How long were nine members of a British traveler family jailed for?
- e) Police say the true figure is likely to be in the tens of thousands.
Who says the true figure is likely to be in the tens of thousands?
- f) Britain passed the Modern Slavery Act in 2015.
When did Britain pass the Modern Slavery Act?

/eɪ/ foundation, preying, slave, labour, accomodation, enslaved

/i:/ people, being

/ɪ/ traffickers, Britain, into, with, promises, charities, risk, being

/aʊ/ foundation

/əʊ/ homeless, growing

/ɔ:/ warning

/u:/ human

/aɪ/ p

/ð/ p

/θ/ p